

I oppose any more media consolidation. In fact I do not believe that any entity should have a monopoly on what is available to citizens. Clear Channel should be dissolved because they have too much coverage in any one market. Also the same for Fox